

- Patrons Application Form -

There is no such thing as the typical Laylow Patron. Our Patrons represent a melting pot of creatives from all disciplines – art, music, publishing, fashion, food and more. There is no other club in London with a community as culturally diverse as ours. Our Patrons are united by their love of good food, exceptional design and their support of the arts.

The monthly fees from your patronage will go towards our Artist in Residence Programme. The first advocacy scheme of its kind, our Patrons' fees provide emerging artists with a vital space to explore their creativity for free at a time when resources from labels and traditional institutions are dwindling.

Resident artists receive bed and board at Laylow for the duration of their residency; unlimited access to the recording studio; a dedicated sound engineer; rehearsal space; a weekly night in the basement live space to use as they wish; PR and marketing support from Laylow's in-house comms team, and more.
